

Attention FDA

1856 '00 AUG 10 AIO:19

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

Do not believe that the voluntary purchase of a hearing aid should require a medical exam and/or hearing test. Nor do I believe that FDA should pay for them! We do not need anymore government involvement in our personal lives!

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

Do not need this type of Legislation or Administrative Rules.

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

No! My health treatment is my business not big governments!

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

Yes, I've done so very satisfactorily!
